

What's New in Jewish Detroit – Bus Tour

Tuesday, May 13, 2014 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Presented in partnership with The Chabad House of Greater Downtown Detroit and the Isaac Agree Downtown Synagogue. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to these organizations.

Join us on this bus tour to get an up close and personal view of what's new in Detroit with a Jewish twist! Experience what we've all been hearing about in the news, Explore the City of Detroit in a unique way, and Enjoy the energy and development! Linda Yellin, Founder of Feet on the Street Tours, will be your guide for this exciting day. During this narrated, multi-stop bus tour, experience fascinating places and hear directly from the people making things happen in our communities. Enjoy learning about the revitalization and repurposing of historical buildings, the creation of new businesses and opportunities, and the expansion of Jewish programming in the City.

Tour highlights:

- New Chabad House – Rabbi Yisrael Pinson and Erik Wodowski / Midtown / Brush Park
- Downtown Synagogue – Anna Kohn / Capital Park / Lower Woodward
- Gold 'n Greens, Wayne State University campus - Vegetarian/Kosher buffet lunch/Cass Corridor
- Signal-Return letterpress – Lynne Avadenka and FD Lofts – Brian Giles / Eastern Market
- Green Living Science and Lincoln Street Art Park – Rachel Klegon / New Center Area

9:00 am Board bus @ Einstein Bagels, 12 Mile & Orchard Lake Rd, Farmington Hills

9:15 am Bus departs for Detroit

-OR-

9:45 am for those wishing to begin in Detroit, meet the bus at the Chabad House, 278 Mack Ave, 1 ½ blocks east of Woodward, parking available in lot next door

4:00 pm Bus returns to 12 Mile & Orchard Lake Rd.

$69 per person, includes tour, lunch and bus transportation

Buy Tickets Online Today! www.EnjoyTheD.com
Questions? Call (248) 353-8687
Or email Linda@EnjoyTheD.com