

June 2019

Given the cool, wet spring we look forward to the warm summer days and our beautiful flower garden.

NOTICE

The July 14th party has been changed to July 4th, at 1 p.m., to accommodate family members to honor Hyman Warshawsky and his family members. Please join us in celebrating Hy's life of dedication to the First Hebrew Congregation. Hosted by Howard Rosenberg there is no admission fee.

Get Ready for the Lox Box

The annual Lox Box fundraiser will be held July 7th at the shul from 10 a.m.-12. The cost of a two-person bag is $20, four-person, $40. The Lox Box includes bagels, lox, cream cheese, tomato, onion, cucumber, juice, and homemade blueberry muffins. The brunch is takeout only.

Saturday Morning Services

The Orthodox Saturday morning services start June 29th at 10 a.m. Joe Steinfeld led service, followed by the area's greatest Kiddush supplied by Rothner and Steinfeld Kosher Catering! If you cannot make the service, please feel free to come and enjoy the Kiddush. These services will continue all summer through Labor Day.

Friday Night Services

We will host four Friday night Reform services led by Rabbi Ellen Dreyfus on July 5th and August 16th and Rabbi Nina Mizrahi on July 12th and August 2nd. The July 12th service, hosted by Bob and Ann Abel, will be held at their home at 701 North Shore Drive. The Abel's chairs are limited -- please bring a chair. The Oneg will be sponsored in memory of Arlene Tolen.

Need of Sponsors

Many of the parties this summer need sponsorship. Please make a $180 donation, and let us honor your family with recognition. The Onegs, comprised of pastries and snacks, also need sponsors.

Nominations for the Board

Anyone wishing to serve on the FHC's Board of Directors please notify Remey Rubin by writing to: First Hebrew Congregation, 249 Broadway, South Haven, MI 49090. Nomination must be in by the end of July.

Congrats'

Congratulations to the Zuckerman family on the beautiful renovation of Lakeshore Paint and Patio. If you have time, stop in and see the most striking changes.

Mazel tov to Marcus and Andrea Gottlieb on the birth of their granddaughter, Mia Sadie Howard.

Get Well

A big get well to our long time board member, Michael Slotnick, who had been hospitalized last month.

Condolences

Condolences to the family of our long time member Marcia Robinson who passed away June 20th. Her smiling face will be missed.

Thank you

We want to thank Don and Carole Hodgman and LawnBoys for replacement of the lights on the posts, the lights in the garden and a new timer for turning the lights on in the evening and out in the early morning. It is a wonderful upgrade for our wonderful garden.
